

Ebenezer has occupied senior roles in the private banking sector where he has worked on corporate social responsibility and community development. He has a keen interest in early warning strategies and conflict management and has worked on a World Bank project on Capacity Building for Traditional Authorities and institutions in Ghana. Ebenezer has recently undertaken work on Africa's international partnerships and the ensuing impact on its security. In this regard, he made presentations on 'AFRICOM: The Perspective of African Civil Society Groups' at the Royal United Services Institute (RUSI) in London; and 'African Security: Perspective of the African Civil Society' at the US Department of Defence in 2008. Ebenezer has the following higher education qualifications BA Philosophy & Study of Religions, MA International Relations (Ghana), MSc Industrial Relations & Personnel Management (London School of Economics), MA Conflict Security and Development (King's College London)

Research Interests

- Conflict Management, with a bias to Early Warning Systems
- Post conflict reconstruction in West Africa